

Exterran Corporation Releases Inaugural Sustainability Report

November 18, 2020

HOUSTON, Nov. 18, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exterran Corporation's (NYSE: EXTN) first sustainability report is giving investors, customers, employees and contractors, and other community stakeholders a closer look at the Company's commitment to providing sustainable, environmentally conscious solutions for the oil, gas, water and power markets.

President and CEO Andrew Way says an eye on sustainability is the right way to do business. "We align our business strategy with our sustainability goals. By focusing on the 3,500 people who work here, the environment we all share and communities around our locations, we can make a positive impact and create value for our Company and our stakeholders."

The report details Exterran's Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) approach, including the Company's environmental philosophy, corporate and employee philanthropy and the commitment to people, safety, and compliance that guides the Company at every level. Way says that while this is the Company's first sustainability report, sustainability is a longstanding priority. "I'm proud that we're part of the energy transition. We provide our customers with innovative, environmentally efficient solutions," he says.
